CHAIRMAN'S MESSAGE

“ON THE BACKDROP OF CONTINUING VOLATILITIES IN THE GLOBAL ENVIRONMENT, THE GLOBAL ECONOMIC OUTLOOK IS BLEAK, ESPECIALLY FOR EMERGING MARKETS AND DEVELOPING ECONOMIES, WHERE WE CONDUCT OUR BUSINESS.”

OTHMAN BIN WOK
Chairman

Dear Shareholders,

On behalf of the Board of Directors, I am pleased to present the Annual Report and Financial Statements for the financial year ended 30 June 2015 (“FY 2015”).

FY 2015 was a trying year for the Group, as the business environment was extremely difficult with market supply outstripping demand, aggravated by rising costs and price competition. Such adversity has taken a toll on our operations. Also, the austerity measures imposed by the Chinese authority on its property market and the resultant market downturn have compelled us to relook at our development project in Yangzhou.

GROUP PERFORMANCE

Overview

For FY 2015, the Group generated a revenue of S$29.8 million, which was 9% lower than that in the previous year.

The Group would have reported net earnings of S$3.0 million rather than a net loss of S$47.4 million, if not for the one-off allowances made during the year. Comparing with last year’s net earnings on the same basis, it would have increased by 18% this year.

Lime Manufacturing

During the year, lime manufacturing division saw a drop in sales volume in tandem with the contraction in market demand. Hence, its revenue reduced by S$3.2 million to S$21.9 million.

With production volume declining under worsening market conditions, an impairment on plant and equipment was made to the tune of S$7.5 million.

If impairments were excluded from both years, lime earnings this year would have been S$1.1 million, rather than a loss, against last year’s earnings of S$2.6 million.

Steel Trading

The sales trend for steel trading division has been erratic, owing to fluctuating demand. Nonetheless, steel revenue for the year remained largely unchanged at S$7.9 million, compared with S$7.8 million in the previous year.

If S$2.5 million in impairment of trade receivables were not included, steel losses would have been lower at S$0.6 million this year. Whereas, last year's earnings was S$0.1 million.

Property Development

During the infancy stage of incorporation, the property development division in China encountered difficulties in obtaining regulatory approvals, which had led to delay in meeting the contractual commencement deadlines. Subsequently, the collapse in property prices and sales volume, coupled with new stringent sales regulations, as a result of austere property cooling measures, further exacerbated the delay. To date, major development work has yet to commence, except for some preparatory work, as the division struggled to avoid further capital commitments in the very depressed property market. Consequently, S$37.8 million in provision for contractual obligations was made.

Financial Position

The Group continued to maintain a healthy liquidity position, with working capital of S$24.9 million, and a cash balance of S$51.8 million as at 30 June 2015.

DIVIDEND

The Board is pleased to propose a first and final dividend of 0.5 cent per ordinary share (tax-exempt one-tier) for FY 2015, subject to shareholder approval at the upcoming annual general meeting.

CHAIRMAN'S MESSAGE

LOOKING AHEAD

On the backdrop of continuing volatilities in the global environment, the global economic outlook is bleak, especially for emerging markets and developing economies, where we conduct our business.

Our operations are impacted by a marketplace that is fraught with excessive supply, unhealthy price competition and intensifying cost pressure. Nonetheless, we will brace ourselves to ride out these challenges. Cost efficiency measures are in place to contain costs, and we will keep a watchful eye on market conditions and act with caution and prudence.

Market sentiments for property development in China remain dampened, as the downturn in property market is further aggravated by the liquidity crunch arising from austerity measures implemented by the Chinese government. Sales periods are lengthened considerably, following the substantial fall in sales volume and selling prices. Our development project in Yangzhou will not be spared from such, and it will be hard-pressed to achieve break-even. In order to minimise the negative impact of holding on to the land, attempts have been made to return the land back to the authority but to no avail. As such, we are in the process of exploring the possibility of divesting our interest in the project.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

I would like to thank my fellow Directors for their guidance and contributions to the Group. My utmost appreciation is extended to the management and staff for their professionalism, dedication and hard work throughout the year.

I would also like to express my sincere gratitude to our clients, suppliers, business associates and shareholders for their steadfast support and partnership over the years.

Othman Bin Wok	(Chairman, Independent Director)
Sam Chong Keen	(Independent Director)
Cheng Theng How	(Non-Executive Director)

CORPORATE GOVERNANCE REPORT

BOARD MATTERS (CONT'D)

The NC carries out the functions stipulated in its terms of reference which clearly set out its authority and duties as described below.

The NC is charged with the responsibilities of evaluating the effectiveness of the Board as a whole and the contribution by each director to the effectiveness of the Board, and to propose objective performance criteria.

A director is generally assessed by his experience in being a company director, competence and knowledge, level and quality of involvement during the course of the year, attendance record at meetings of the Board and Board Committees, intensity of participation at meetings, the quality of interventions and any special contributions.

To evaluate the effectiveness of the Board, the NC has put in place an annual board performance evaluation exercise which is carried out by means of a questionnaire, which includes questions on Board's composition, process and accountability etc., for completion by each Director. The results of the questionnaire are collated and the findings are reviewed by the NC and reported to the Board.

The Board has not determined the maximum number of listed company board representations which a Director may hold, as it is of the view that the Directors have different capabilities, and the nature of the organisations in which they hold appointments are of different complexities. Directors who have multiple board representations and principal commitments shall personally determine the demand of their obligations and assess the number of directorships they could hold, in order to ensure that they could dedicate sufficient time and attention to the Company to serve effectively. Each Director will update the Company of any changes in his external directorships and these changes will be noted at Board meetings. The NC will review and determine whether or not each Director is able to and has been adequately carrying out his duties as Director of the Company, taking into consideration his other listed company board representations and principal commitments.

Appointment and Re-appointment of Directors

The NC is responsible for making recommendations to the Board on appointment of directors, and to re-nominate directors, taking into account the individual director's contribution and performance.

The NC will review a new director's background, qualification, experience, skill sets and ability to contribute effectively, and make recommendation to the Board. The NC will use its best efforts to ensure that directors appointed to the Board possess the relevant background, experience and knowledge, as well as business, finance and management skills critical to the Company's business. New directors could be sourced through a network of contacts or recommendations, or via recruitment consultants.

Pursuant to Article 91 of the Articles of Association of the Company, every Director shall retire from office at least once every three (3) years, and at each annual general meeting ("AGM") of the Company, one-third of the Directors shall retire from office by rotation and the retiring Directors shall be eligible for re-election. In addition, Directors who are appointed during the year shall hold office only until the next AGM pursuant to Article 97 and shall be eligible for re-election, but shall not be taken into account in determining the number of Directors who are to retire by rotation at such meeting.

BOARD MATTERS (CONT'D)

Accordingly, Mr Sam Chong Keen will retire by rotation at the forthcoming 45th AGM pursuant to Article 91 and shall be eligible for re-election. Pursuant to Section 153(6) of the Companies Act, two (2) Directors, Mr Othman Bin Wok and Tan Sri Cheng Heng Jem, are subject to Section 153(6) of the Companies Act to hold office until the conclusion of the next AGM on a yearly basis and shall be eligible for re-appointment, but shall not be subject to the provisions of the Articles relating to the rotation and retirement of Directors.

Board Orientation and Training

A formal letter of appointment will be provided to a new director upon his appointment, setting out the duties and obligations of a director. Materials containing information on the Group's structure, business, operations and governance policies and practices are also provided.

The Directors are kept informed of any relevant changes to legislation and regulatory requirements by the Company. They are also encouraged to attend, at the Company's expense, courses or seminars conducted by external professionals to keep abreast of changes in law and governance matters that may affect the Group.

Independence of Directors

The NC determines annually whether or not a Director is independent, taking into account the relationship a Director may have with the Company and its related companies. Each Director is required to complete a Director's Independence Checklist drawn up based on the guidelines in the Code, and shall confirm whether he is independent despite not having any relationships as set out in the Code. Thereafter, the NC reviews the completed checklists to assess the independence of the Directors and recommends its assessment to the Board. The continued independence of Directors who have served more than nine (9) years will be subject to particularly rigorous review. Such measures shall enable the Board to have an independent and objective perspective so as to allow balanced and well-considered decisions to be made.

The NC is of the view that Messrs Othman Bin Wok and Sam Chong Keen are independent Directors. Although they have served on the Board for more than nine (9) years, the NC is of the view that a director's independence cannot be determined solely on the basis of length of time. Instead, the substance of a director's professionalism, integrity and objectivity is of utmost importance. Both Directors have expressed individual views and objectively scrutinised and debated issues. In doing so, they have demonstrated independent mindedness and conduct at Board and Board Committee meetings. The Board is also of the opinion that both Directors have over time developed significant insights in the Group's business, and could continue to provide valuable contribution and exercise independent judgement in the best interests of the Company.

Access to Information

The Directors are provided with complete and adequate information in a timely manner by the Management. To facilitate an informed decision making, explanatory notes or reports on major operational, financial and corporate issues, together with copies of disclosure documents and/or financial statements are circulated to the Directors at a reasonable time period prior to Board meetings for their perusal. If necessary, arrangement will be made for the Directors to obtain independent professional advice at the Company's expense.

BOARD MATTERS (CONT'D)

All Directors have independent access to the senior management of the Company and also the Company Secretary. The Company Secretary attends all Board meetings and ensures that Board procedures are followed and that applicable rules and regulations are complied with. The Company Secretary is responsible for assisting the Group in its compliance with the requirements of the Companies Act, rules of the SGX-ST Listing Manual and other applicable regulations. The Company Secretary shall ensure good information flows within the Board and its committees, as well as between senior management and non-executive Directors, and where necessary, shall facilitate orientation and assist in professional development. The appointment and removal of the Company Secretary are subject to the approval of the Board.

There are no contractual provisions that allow the Group to reclaim incentive components of remuneration from executive director and key management in exceptional circumstances of misstatement of financial results, or of misconduct resulting in financial loss to the Group, and the RC will seek expert advice where necessary.

CORPORATE GOVERNANCE REPORT

Such remuneration framework is reviewed by the RC on an annual basis and recommended to the Board for endorsement. The aggregate amount of Directors' Fees for each financial year is subject to the approval of shareholders at the AGM of the Company.

INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

To the Members of Lion Asiapac Limited

Report on the consolidated financial statements

We have audited the accompanying consolidated financial statements of Lion Asiapac Limited (the "Company") and its subsidiaries (the "Group") set out on pages 27 to 82, which comprise the consolidated statement of financial position of the Group and the statement of financial position of the Company as at 30 June 2015, and the consolidated statement of profit or loss and other comprehensive income, statement of changes in equity and statement of cash flows of the Group, and statement of changes in equity of the Company for the financial year then ended, and a summary of significant accounting policies and other explanatory information.

Management's responsibility for the consolidated financial statements

Management is responsible for the preparation of consolidated financial statements that give a true and fair view in accordance with the provisions of the Singapore Companies Act, Chapter 50 (the "Act") and Singapore Financial Reporting Standards, and for devising and maintaining a system of internal accounting controls sufficient to provide a reasonable assurance that assets are safeguarded against loss from unauthorised use or disposition; and transactions are properly authorised and that they are recorded as necessary to permit the preparation of true and fair financial statements and to maintain accountability of assets.

Auditor's responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these consolidated financial statements based on our audit. We conducted our audit in accordance with Singapore Standards on Auditing. Those standards require that we comply with ethical requirements and plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the consolidated financial statements are free from material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the consolidated financial statements. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal control relevant to the entity's preparation of consolidated financial statements that give a true and fair view in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the entity's internal control. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the consolidated financial statements.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Opinion

In our opinion, the consolidated financial statements of the Group and the statement of financial position and statement of changes in equity of the Company are properly drawn up in accordance with the provisions of the Act and Singapore Financial Reporting Standards so as to give a true and fair view of the financial position of the Group and of the Company as at 30 June 2015 and of the financial performance, changes in equity and cash flows of the Group and the changes in equity of the Company for the reporting year ended on that date.

2. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Accounting Convention

The financial statements have been prepared in accordance with the Singapore Financial Reporting Standards (“FRS”) and the related Interpretations to FRS (“INT FRS”) as issued by the Singapore Accounting Standards Council and the Companies Act, Chapter 50. The financial statements are prepared on a going concern basis under the historical cost convention except where a FRS requires an alternative treatment (such as fair values) as disclosed where appropriate in these financial statements. The accounting policies in FRSs may not be applied when the effect of applying them is immaterial. The disclosures required by FRSs need not be made if the information is immaterial. Other comprehensive income comprises items of income and expense (including reclassification adjustments) that are not recognised in the income statement, as required or permitted by FRS. Reclassification adjustments are amounts reclassified to profit or loss in the income statement in the current period that were recognised in other comprehensive income in the current or previous periods.

Basis of Presentation

The consolidated financial statements include the financial statements made up to the end of the reporting year of the Company and all of its subsidiaries. The consolidated financial statements are the financial statements of the Group in which the assets, liabilities, equity, income, expenses and cash flows of the parent and its subsidiaries are presented as those of a single economic entity and are prepared using uniform accounting policies for like transactions and other events in similar circumstances. All significant intragroup balances and transactions, including income, expenses and cash flows are eliminated on consolidation. Subsidiaries are consolidated from the date the reporting entity obtains control of the investee and cease when the reporting entity loses control of the investee. Control exists when the Group has the power to govern the financial and operating policies so as to gain benefits from its activities.

2. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (CONT'D)

Basis of Presentation (Cont'd)

Changes in the Group's ownership interest in a subsidiary that do not result in the loss of control are accounted for within equity as transactions with owners in their capacity as owners. The carrying amounts of the Group's and non-controlling interests are adjusted to reflect the changes in their relative interests in the subsidiary. When the Group loses control of a subsidiary it derecognises the assets and liabilities and related equity components of the former subsidiary. Any gain or loss is recognised in profit or loss. Any investment retained in the former subsidiary is measured at fair value at the date when control is lost and is subsequently accounted as available-for-sale financial assets in accordance with FRS 39.

The Company's separate financial statements have been prepared on the same basis, and as permitted by the Companies Act, Chapter 50, the Company's separate statement of profit or loss and other comprehensive income is not presented.

Basis of Preparation of the Financial Statements

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles requires the management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting year. Actual results could differ from those estimates. The estimates and assumptions are reviewed on an ongoing basis. Apart from those involving estimations, management has made judgements in the process of applying the entity's accounting policies. The areas requiring management's most difficult, subjective or complex judgements, or areas where assumptions and estimates are significant to the financial statements, are disclosed at the end of this footnote, where applicable.

Revenue Recognition

The revenue amount is the fair value of the consideration received or receivable from the gross inflow of economic benefits during the reporting year arising from the course of the activities of the entity and it is shown net of any related sales taxes and rebates. Revenue from the sale of goods is recognised when significant risks and rewards of ownership are transferred to the buyer, there is neither continuing managerial involvement to the degree usually associated with ownership nor effective control over the goods sold, and the amount of revenue and the costs incurred or to be incurred in respect of the transaction can be measured reliably. Revenue from rendering of services that are not significant transactions is recognised as the services are provided or when the significant acts have been completed. Interest is recognised using the effective interest method.

2. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (CONT'D)

Employee Benefits

Contributions to a defined contribution retirement benefit plan are recorded as an expense as they fall due. The entity's legal or constructive obligation is limited to the amount that it agrees to contribute to an independently administered fund (such as the Central Provident Fund in Singapore, a government managed defined contribution retirement benefit plan). For employee leave entitlement the expected cost of short-term employee benefits in the form of compensated absences is recognised in the case of accumulating compensated absences, when the employees render service that increases their entitlement to future compensated absences; and in the case of non-accumulating compensated absences, when the absences occur. A liability for bonuses is recognised where the entity is contractually obliged or where there is constructive obligation based on past practice.

Income Tax

The income taxes are accounted using the asset and liability method that requires the recognition of taxes payable or refundable for the current year and deferred tax liabilities and assets for the future tax consequence of events that have been recognised in the financial statements or tax returns. The measurements of current and deferred tax liabilities and assets are based on provisions of the enacted or substantially enacted tax laws; the effects of future changes in tax laws or rates are not anticipated. Tax expense/(tax income) is the aggregate amount included in the determination of profit or loss for the reporting year in respect of current tax and deferred tax. Current and deferred income taxes are recognised as income or as an expense in profit or loss unless the tax relates to items that are recognised in the same or a different period outside profit or loss. For such items recognised outside profit or loss the current tax and deferred tax are recognised (a) in other comprehensive income if the tax is related to an item recognised in other comprehensive income and (b) directly in equity if the tax is related to an item recognised directly in equity. Deferred tax assets and liabilities are offset when they relate to income taxes levied by the same income tax authority. The carrying amount of deferred tax assets is reviewed at the end of each reporting year and is reduced, if necessary, by the amount of any tax benefits that, based on available evidence, are not expected to be realised. A deferred tax amount is recognised for all temporary differences, unless the deferred tax amount arises from the initial recognition of an asset or liability in a transaction which (i) is not a business combination; and (ii) at the time of the transaction, affects neither accounting profit nor taxable profit/(tax loss). A deferred tax liability or asset is recognised for all taxable temporary differences associated with investments in subsidiaries, branches, associates and joint arrangements except where the reporting entity is able to control the timing of the reversal of the taxable temporary difference and it is probable that the taxable temporary difference will not reverse in the foreseeable future or for deductible temporary differences, they will not reverse in the foreseeable future and they cannot be utilised against taxable profits.

2. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (CONT'D)

Foreign Currency Transactions

The functional currency is the Singapore dollar as it reflects the primary economic environment in which the entity operates. Transactions in foreign currencies are recorded in the functional currency at the rates ruling at the dates of the transactions. At the end of each reporting year, recorded monetary balances and balances measured at fair value that are denominated in non-functional currencies are reported at the rates ruling at the end of the reporting year and fair value measurement dates respectively. All realised and unrealised exchange adjustment gains and losses are dealt with in profit or loss except when recognised in other comprehensive income and if applicable deferred in equity such as for qualifying cash flow hedges. The presentation is in the functional currency.

Translation of Financial Statements of Other Entities

Each entity in the Group determines the appropriate functional currency as it reflects the primary economic environment in which the relevant reporting entity operates. In translating the financial statements of such an entity for incorporation in the consolidated financial statements in the presentation currency, the assets and liabilities denominated in other currencies are translated at rates of exchange at the end of the reporting year and the income and expense items for each statement presenting profit or loss and other comprehensive income are translated at average rates of exchange for the reporting year. The resulting translation adjustments (if any) are recognised in other comprehensive income and accumulated in a separate component of equity until the disposal of that relevant reporting entity.

Segment Reporting

The reporting entity discloses financial and descriptive information about its consolidated reportable segments. Reportable segments are operating segments or aggregations of operating segments that meet specified criteria. Operating segments are components about which separate financial information is available that is evaluated regularly by the chief operating decision maker in deciding how to allocate resources and in assessing the performance. Generally, financial information is reported on the same basis as is used internally for evaluating operating segment performance and deciding how to allocate resources to operating segments.

Borrowing Costs

Borrowing costs are interest and other costs incurred in connection with the borrowing of funds. The interest expense is calculated using the effective interest rate method. Borrowing costs are recognised as an expense in the period in which they are incurred except that borrowing costs that are directly attributable to the acquisition, construction or production of a qualifying asset that necessarily take a substantial period of time to get ready for their intended use or sale are capitalised as part of the cost of that asset until substantially all the activities necessary to prepare the qualifying asset for its intended use or sale are complete.

2. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (CONT'D)

Property, Plant and Equipment

Depreciation is provided on a straight-line method to allocate the gross carrying amounts of the assets less their residual values over their estimated useful lives of each part of an item of these assets. The annual rates of depreciation are as follows:

	Useful lives
Leasehold buildings and infrastructures	20 years
Plant and machinery	1 – 15 years
Office equipment and motor vehicles	2.5 – 10 years
Furniture and fittings	3 – 10 years

An asset is depreciated when it is available for use until it is derecognised even if during that period the item is idle. Fully depreciated assets still in use are retained in the financial statements.

Property, plant and equipment are carried at cost on initial recognition and after initial recognition at cost less any accumulated depreciation and any accumulated impairment losses. The gain or loss arising from the derecognition of an item of property, plant and equipment is measured as the difference between the net disposal proceeds, if any, and the carrying amount of the item and is recognised in profit or loss. The residual value and the useful life of an asset are reviewed at least at the end of each reporting year and, if expectations differ significantly from previous estimates, the changes are accounted for as a change in an accounting estimate, and the depreciation charge for the current and future periods are adjusted.

Cost also includes acquisition cost, borrowing cost capitalised and any cost directly attributable to bringing the asset or component to the location and condition necessary for it to be capable of operating in the manner intended by management. Subsequent cost is recognised as an asset only when it is probable that future economic benefits associated with the item will flow to the entity and the cost of the item can be measured reliably. All other repairs and maintenance are charged to profit or loss when they are incurred.

2. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (CONT'D)

Leases

Whether an arrangement is, or contains, a lease is based on the substance of the arrangement at the inception date, that is, whether (a) fulfilment of the arrangement is dependent on the use of a specific asset or assets (the asset); and (b) the arrangement conveys a right to use the asset. Leases are classified as finance leases if substantially all the risks and rewards of ownership are transferred to the lessee. All other leases are classified as operating leases. At the commencement of the lease term, a finance lease is recognised as an asset and as a liability in the statement of financial position at amounts equal to the fair value of the leased asset or, if lower, the present value of the minimum lease payments, each measured at the inception of the lease. The discount rate used in calculating the present value of the minimum lease payments is the interest rate implicit in the lease, if this is practicable to determine, the lessee's incremental borrowing rate is used. Any initial direct costs of the lessee are added to the amount recognised as an asset. The excess of the lease payments over the recorded lease liability are treated as finance charges which are allocated to each reporting year during the lease term so as to produce a constant periodic rate of interest on the remaining balance of the liability. Contingent rents are charged as expenses in the reporting years in which they are incurred. The assets are depreciated as owned depreciable assets. Leases where the lessor effectively retains substantially all the risks and benefits of ownership of the leased assets are classified as operating leases. For operating leases, lease payments are recognised as an expense in profit or loss on a straight-line basis over the term of the relevant lease unless another systematic basis is representative of the time pattern of the user's benefit, even if the payments are not on that basis. Lease incentives received are recognised in profit or loss as an integral part of the total lease expense. Rental income from operating leases is recognised in profit or loss on a straight-line basis over the term of the relevant lease unless another systematic basis is representative of the time pattern of the user's benefit, even if the payments are not on that basis. Initial direct cost incurred in negotiating and arranging an operating lease are added to the carrying amount of the leased asset and recognised on a straight-line basis over the lease term.

Development Property for Sale

Development properties are those properties which are held with the intention of development and sale in the ordinary course of business. They are stated at the lower of cost and net realisable value. Net realisable value represents the estimated selling price less costs to be incurred in selling the property. The cost of properties under development comprises specifically identified costs, including acquisition costs, development expenditure, borrowing costs and other related expenditure. Borrowing costs payable on loans funding development properties are also capitalised, on a specific identification basis, as part of the cost of the development properties until the completion of development. The aggregated costs incurred are presented as development properties while progress billings are presented separately as deferred income within trade and other payables.

2. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (CONT'D)

Subsidiaries

A subsidiary is an entity including unincorporated and special purpose entity that is controlled by the reporting entity and the reporting entity is exposed, or has rights, to variable returns from its involvement with the investee and has the ability to affect those returns through its power over the investee. The existence and effect of substantive potential voting rights that the reporting entity has the practical ability to exercise (that is, substantive rights) are considered when assessing whether the reporting entity controls another entity.

In the reporting entity's separate financial statements, an investment in a subsidiary is accounted for at cost less any allowance for impairment in value. Impairment loss recognised in profit or loss for a subsidiary is reversed only if there has been a change in the estimates used to determine the asset's recoverable amount since the last impairment loss was recognised. The carrying value and the net book value of the investment in a subsidiary are not necessarily indicative of the amount that would be realised in a current market exchange.

Business Combinations

Business combinations are accounted for by applying the acquisition method. There were no acquisitions during the financial year.

Non-Controlling Interests

The non-controlling interest is equity in a subsidiary not attributable, directly or indirectly, to the reporting entity as the parent in the net assets and net results of a consolidated subsidiary are shown separately in the appropriate components of the consolidated financial statements. The non-controlling interest is presented in the consolidated statement of financial position within equity, separate from equity of the owners of the parent. For each business combination, any non-controlling interest in the acquiree (subsidiary) is initially measured either at fair value or at the non-controlling interest's proportionate share of the acquiree's identifiable net assets. Where the non-controlling interest is measured at fair value, the valuation techniques and key model inputs used are disclosed in the relevant note. Profit or loss and each component of other comprehensive income are attributed to the owners of the parent and to the non-controlling interests. Total comprehensive income is attributed to the owners of the parent and to the non-controlling interests even if this results in the non-controlling interests having a deficit balance.

2. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (CONT'D)

Impairment of Non-Financial Assets

Irrespective of whether there is any indication of impairment, an annual impairment test is performed at the same time every year on an intangible asset with an indefinite useful life or an intangible asset not yet available for use. The carrying amount of other non-financial assets is reviewed at the end of each reporting year for indications of impairment and where an asset is impaired, it is written down through profit or loss to its estimated recoverable amount. The impairment loss is the excess of the carrying amount over the recoverable amount and is recognised in profit or loss. The recoverable amount of an asset or a cash-generating unit is the higher of its fair value less costs of disposal and its value in use. When the fair value less costs of disposal method is used, any available recent market transactions are taken into consideration. When the value in use method is adopted, in assessing the value in use, the estimated future cash flows are discounted to their present value using a pre-tax discount rate that reflects current market assessments of the time value of money and the risks specific to the asset. For the purposes of assessing impairment, assets are grouped at the lowest levels for which there are separately identifiable cash flows (cash-generating units). At the end of each reporting year, non-financial assets other than goodwill with impairment loss recognised in prior periods are assessed for possible reversal of the impairment. An impairment loss is reversed only to the extent that the asset's carrying amount does not exceed the carrying amount that would have been measured, net of depreciation or amortisation, if no impairment loss had been recognised.

Inventories

Inventories are measured at the lower of cost (weighted average method) and net realisable value. Net realisable value is the estimated selling price in the ordinary course of business less the estimated costs of completion and the estimated costs necessary to make the sale. A write down on cost is made where the cost is not recoverable or if the selling prices have declined. Cost includes all costs of purchase, costs of conversion and other costs incurred in bringing the inventories to their present location and condition.

NOTES TO THE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

FOR THE FINANCIAL YEAR ENDED 30 JUNE 2015

2. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (CONT'D)

Financial Assets

Initial recognition, measurement and derecognition:

A financial asset is recognised on the statement of financial position when, and only when, the entity becomes a party to the contractual provisions of the instrument. The initial recognition of financial assets is at fair value normally represented by the transaction price. The transaction price for financial asset not classified at fair value through profit or loss includes the transaction costs that are directly attributable to the acquisition or issue of the financial asset. Transaction costs incurred on the acquisition or issue of financial assets classified at fair value through profit or loss are expensed immediately. The transactions are recorded at the trade date.

Irrespective of the legal form of the transactions performed, financial assets are derecognised when they pass the “substance over form” based on the derecognition test prescribed by FRS 39 relating to the transfer of risks and rewards of ownership and the transfer of control. Financial assets and financial liabilities are offset and the net amount is reported in the statement of financial position if there is currently a legally enforceable right to offset the recognised amounts and there is an intention to settle on a net basis, to realise the assets and settle the liabilities simultaneously.

Subsequent measurement:

Subsequent measurement based on the classification of the financial assets in one of the following four categories under FRS 39 is as follows:

- #1. Financial assets at fair value through profit or loss: As at the end of the reporting year, there were no financial assets classified in this category.
- #2. Loans and receivables: Loans and receivables are non-derivative financial assets with fixed or determinable payments that are not quoted in an active market. Assets that are for sale immediately or in the near term are not classified in this category. These assets are carried at amortised costs using the effective interest method (except that short-duration receivables with no stated interest rate are normally measured at original invoice amount unless the effect of imputing interest would be significant) minus any reduction (directly or through the use of an allowance account) for impairment or uncollectibility. Impairment charges are provided only when there is objective evidence that an impairment loss has been incurred as a result of one or more events that occurred after the initial recognition of the asset (a ‘loss event’) and that loss event (or events) has an impact on the estimated future cash flows of the financial asset or group of financial assets that can be reliably estimated. The methodology ensures that an impairment loss is not recognised on the initial recognition of an asset. Losses expected as a result of future events, no matter how likely, are not recognised.

NOTES TO THE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

FOR THE FINANCIAL YEAR ENDED 30 JUNE 2015

2. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (CONT'D)

Financial Assets (Cont'd)

- #2. Loans and receivables: (Cont'd): For impairment, the carrying amount of the asset is reduced through use of an allowance account. The amount of the loss is recognised in profit or loss. An impairment loss is reversed if the reversal can be related objectively to an event occurring after the impairment loss was recognised. Typically the trade and other receivables are classified in this category.
- #3. Held-to-maturity financial assets: As at the end of the reporting year, there were no financial assets classified in this category.
- #4. Available-for-sale financial assets: These are non-derivative financial assets that are designated as available-for-sale on initial recognition or are not classified in one of the previous categories. These assets are carried at fair value. Changes in fair value of available-for-sale financial assets (other than those relating to foreign exchange translation differences on monetary investments) are recognised in other comprehensive income and accumulated in a separate component of equity under the heading revaluation reserves. Such reserves are reclassified to profit or loss when realised through disposal. When there is objective evidence that the asset is impaired, the cumulative loss is reclassified from equity to profit or loss as a reclassification adjustment. A significant or prolonged decline in the fair value of the investment below its cost is considered to be objective evidence of impairment. If, in a subsequent period, the fair value of an equity instrument classified as available-for-sale increases and the increase can be objectively related to an event occurring after the impairment loss, it is reversed against revaluation reserves and is not subsequently reversed through profit or loss. However for debt instruments classified as available-for-sale, impairment losses recognised in profit or loss are subsequently reversed if an increase in the fair value of the instrument can be objectively related to an event occurring after the recognition of the impairment loss. For non-equity instruments classified as available-for-sale, the reversal of impairment is recognised in profit or loss. The weighted average method is used when determining the cost basis of publicly listed equities being disposed of. The financial assets are classified as non-current assets unless management intends to dispose of the investments within 12 months of the end of the reporting year. Usually non-current investments in equity shares and debt securities are classified in this category but it does not include subsidiaries, joint ventures, or associates. Unquoted investments are stated at cost less allowance for impairment in value where there are no market prices, and management is unable to establish fair value by using valuation techniques except that where management can establish fair value by using valuation techniques the relevant unquoted investments are stated at fair value. For unquoted equity instruments, impairment losses are not reversed.

Changes in the fair value of non-functional currency denominated investments classified as available-for-sale are analysed between translation differences and other changes in the carrying amount of the investments. The translation differences on monetary investments are recognised in profit or loss and measured based on the amortised cost of the monetary investments; translation differences on non-monetary investments are recognised in other comprehensive income. Interest income calculated using the effective interest method and dividends are recognised in profit or loss. Other changes in the carrying amount of the investments classified as available-for-sale are recognised in other comprehensive income.

2. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (CONT'D)

Cash and Cash Equivalents

Cash and cash equivalents include bank and cash balances, on demand deposits and any highly liquid debt instruments purchased with an original maturity of three months or less. For the statement of cash flows, the item includes cash and cash equivalents less cash subject to restriction and bank overdrafts payable on demand that form an integral part of cash management.

Financial Liabilities

Initial recognition, measurement and derecognition:

A financial liability is recognised on the statement of financial position when, and only when, the entity becomes a party to the contractual provisions of the instrument and it is derecognised when the obligation specified in the contract is discharged or cancelled or expires. The initial recognition of financial liability is at fair value normally represented by the transaction price. The transaction price for financial liability not classified at fair value through profit or loss includes the transaction costs that are directly attributable to the acquisition or issue of the financial liability. Transaction costs incurred on the acquisition or issue of financial liability classified at fair value through profit or loss are expensed immediately. The transactions are recorded at the trade date. Financial liabilities including bank and other borrowings are classified as current liabilities unless there is an unconditional right to defer settlement of the liability for at least 12 months after the end of the reporting year.

Subsequent measurement:

Subsequent measurement based on the classification of the financial liabilities in one of the following two categories under FRS 39 is as follows:

- #1. Liabilities at fair value through profit or loss: Liabilities are classified in this category when they are incurred principally for the purpose of selling or repurchasing in the near term (trading liabilities) or are derivatives (except for a derivative that is a designated and effective hedging instrument) or have been classified in this category because the conditions are met using the "fair value option" and it is used. Financial guarantee contracts if significant are initially recognised at fair value and are subsequently measured at the greater of (a) the amount determined in accordance with FRS 37 and (b) the amount initially recognised less, where appropriate, cumulative amortisation recognised in accordance with FRS 18. All changes in fair value relating to liabilities at fair value through profit or loss are charged to profit or loss as incurred.
- #2. Other financial liabilities: All liabilities, which have not been classified in the previous category fall into this residual category. These liabilities are carried at amortised cost using the effective interest method. Trade and other payables and borrowings are usually classified in this category. Items classified within current trade and other payables are not usually re-measured, as the obligation is usually known with a high degree of certainty and settlement is short-term.

NOTES TO THE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

FOR THE FINANCIAL YEAR ENDED 30 JUNE 2015

2. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (CONT'D)

Classification of Equity and Liabilities

A financial instrument is classified as a liability or as equity in accordance with the substance of the contractual arrangement on initial recognition. Equity instruments are contracts that give a residual interest in the net assets of the reporting entity. Where the financial instrument does not give rise to a contractual obligation on the part of the issuer to make payment in cash or kind under conditions that are potentially unfavourable, it is classified as an equity instrument. Ordinary shares are classified as equity. Equity instruments are recognised at the amount of proceeds received net of incremental costs directly attributable to the transaction. Dividends on equity are recognised as liabilities when they are declared. Interim dividends are recognised when declared by the directors.

Fair Value Measurement

Fair value is taken to be the price that would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date (that is, an exit price). It is a market-based measurement, not an entity-specific measurement. When measuring fair value, management uses the assumptions that market participants would use when pricing the asset or liability under current market conditions, including assumptions about risk. The entity's intention to hold an asset or to settle or otherwise fulfil a liability is not taken into account as relevant when measuring fair value. In making the fair value measurement, management determines the following: (a) the particular asset or liability being measured (these are identified and disclosed in the relevant notes below); (b) for a non-financial asset, the highest and best use of the asset and whether the asset is used in combination with other assets or on a stand-alone basis; (c) the market in which an orderly transaction would take place for the asset or liability; and (d) the appropriate valuation techniques to use when measuring fair value. The valuation techniques used maximise the use of relevant observable inputs and minimise unobservable inputs. These inputs are consistent with the inputs a market participant may use when pricing the asset or liability.

The fair value measurements and related disclosures categorise the inputs to valuation techniques used to measure fair value by using a fair value hierarchy of three levels. These are recurring fair value measurements unless stated otherwise in the relevant notes to the financial statements. Level 1 inputs are quoted prices (unadjusted) in active markets for identical assets or liabilities that the entity can access at the measurement date. Level 2 inputs are inputs other than quoted prices included within Level 1 that are observable for the asset or liability, either directly or indirectly. Level 3 inputs are unobservable inputs for the asset or liability. The level is measured on the basis of the lowest level input that is significant to the fair value measurement in its entirety. Transfers between levels of the fair value hierarchy are deemed to have occurred at the beginning of the reporting year. If a financial instrument measured at fair value has a bid price and an ask price, the price within the bid-ask spread or mid-market pricing that is most representative of fair value in the circumstances is used to measure fair value regardless of where the input is categorised within the fair value hierarchy. If there is no market, or the markets available are not active, the fair value is established by using an acceptable valuation technique.

NOTES TO THE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

FOR THE FINANCIAL YEAR ENDED 30 JUNE 2015

2. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (CONT'D)

Fair Value Measurement (Cont'd)

The carrying values of current financial instruments approximate their fair values due to the short-term maturity of these instruments and the disclosures of fair value are not made when the carrying amount of current financial instruments is a reasonable approximation of the fair value. The fair values of non-current financial instruments may not be disclosed separately unless there are significant differences at the end of the reporting year and in the event the fair values are disclosed in the relevant notes to the financial statements.

Provisions

A liability or provision is recognised when there is a present obligation (legal or constructive) as a result of a past event, it is probable that an outflow of resources embodying economic benefits will be required to settle the obligation and a reliable estimate can be made of the amount of the obligation. A provision is made using best estimates of the amount required in settlement and where the effect of the time value of money is material, the amount recognised is the present value of the expenditures expected to be required to settle the obligation using a pre-tax rate that reflects current market assessments of the time value of money and the risks specific to the obligation. The increase in the provision due to passage of time is recognised as interest expense. Changes in estimates are reflected in profit or loss in the reporting year they occur.

Critical Judgements, Assumptions and Estimation Uncertainties

The critical judgements made in the process of applying the accounting policies that have the most significant effect on the amounts recognised in the financial statements and the key assumptions concerning the future, and other key sources of estimation uncertainty at the end of the reporting year, that have a significant risk of causing a material adjustment to the carrying amounts of assets and liabilities currently or within the next reporting year are discussed below. These estimates and assumptions are periodically monitored to ensure they incorporate all relevant information available at the date when financial statements are prepared. However, this does not prevent actual figures differing from estimates.

Estimated impairment of development property for sale:

The property in Yangzhou, China is held with the intention of development and sale in the ordinary course of business. The allowance for foreseeable losses is estimated taking into account estimated selling prices and estimated total construction costs. The estimated selling prices are based on recent selling prices for the development project or comparable projects and prevailing property market conditions. The estimated total construction costs are based on contracted amounts and, in respect of amounts not contracted for, management's estimates of the amounts to be incurred taking into consideration historical trends of the amounts incurred. The amounts of the development property for sale at the end of the financial year are disclosed in Note 14.

NOTES TO THE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

FOR THE FINANCIAL YEAR ENDED 30 JUNE 2015

2. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (CONT'D)

Estimated provision for contractual obligations:

An assessment is made to determine the amount of provision for contractual obligations arising from non-development of the project. This assessment is significant and the process is complex and highly judgmental and is based on assumptions that are affected by expected future market or economic conditions. As a result, judgement is required in evaluating the assumptions used by management, in particular those relating to the settlement of the contractual obligations. The disclosures on the provision are included in Note 23. Actual outcomes could vary from these estimates.

Estimated impairment of plant and equipment:

An assessment is made for the reporting year on whether there is any indication that the asset may be impaired. If any such indication exists, an estimate is made of the recoverable amount of the asset. The recoverable amounts of cash-generating units if applicable is measured based on the fair value less costs of disposal or value in use calculations. The Board of Directors has decided to shut down one of its production plants in Malaysia due to deteriorating market condition. The recoverable amount was estimated through a quotation from an interested buyer. The carrying amount of the specific asset or class of assets at the end of the reporting year is $9,942,000.

Estimated impairment of available-for-sale financial assets:

An investment available-for-sale is regarded as impaired when there has been a significant or prolonged decline in the fair value below cost. The determination of what is "significant" or "prolonged" requires significant judgement. An estimate is made of the future profitability of the investment, and the financial health of and near-term business outlook for the investment, including factors such as industry and sector performance, and operational and financing cash flow. The amounts of the relevant investments at the end of the financial year are in Note 13.

3. RELATED PARTY RELATIONSHIPS AND TRANSACTIONS

11A. Fair value measurements (Level 3) recognised in the statement of financial position

- (i) An impairment loss of $7,485,000 (2014: Nil) was recognised in the profit or loss for shutting down one of the production plants in the lime manufacturing subsidiary, Compact Energy Sdn Bhd.

Management estimated the recoverable amount of the plant based on a quotation from an interested buyer, a company incorporated in Malaysia. The recoverable amount, based on fair value less costs of disposal, where management has estimated, was based on assets with comparable age and similar used condition and situation, where the management has assessed this method to be the most appropriate valuation method given the lack of market data for comparables.

As a result of the impairment assessment, the carrying amount of the plant was higher than the recoverable amount by $7,845,000. This loss was recognised and the plant was written down to $2,136,000.

The fair value measurement is classified within Level 3 of the fair value hierarchy based on the inputs in the valuation technique used. No unobservable inputs were available and hence no sensitivity analysis on the unobservable inputs was presented.

13. AVAILABLE-FOR-SALE FINANCIAL ASSETS (CONT'D)

13A. Disclosures relating to investments (Cont'd)

- (b) The quoted investment of $152,000 (2014: $275,000) relates to equity interest in Lion Corporation Berhad acquired by a subsidiary of the Company in a scheme of arrangement for overdue trade receivables owed by a related party in 2012. The Group has recognised an impairment loss of $107,000 (2014: $549,000) against this equity security whose trade prices have declined significantly.
- (c) The unquoted investment is made up of 26,000 ordinary shares at US$0.50 each in Visioneering Inc. ("Visioneering"), a company incorporated in the United States of America. The Group holds an equity interest of less than 1% in Visioneering as at 30 June 2015. There has been no change in equity interest held by the Group in Visioneering from 1 July 2014 to 30 June 2015. This unquoted investment has been fully written off in the reporting year as management has assessed that the likelihood of recovery is low.
- (d) This unquoted investment relates to a company incorporated in Singapore. There has been no change in the carrying amount of the unquoted investment from 1 July 2014 to 30 June 2015. This unquoted investment has been fully impaired in previous financial years and has been written off during the reporting year as the investee company is under creditors' winding up and the likelihood of recovery is low.

There are investments in equity shares or similar instruments. Such investments are exposed to both currency risk and market price risk arising from uncertainties about future values of the investment securities. Sensitivity analysis: The effect is as follows:

	2015 $'000	2014 $'000
A hypothetical 10% (2014: 1%) increase in share price of quoted equity shares in Australia would have an effect on other comprehensive income after tax	14	22
A hypothetical 10% (2014: 1%) increase in share price of quoted equity shares in Malaysia would have an effect on other comprehensive income after tax	13	2

For similar price decreases in the fair value of the above financial assets, there would have comparable impacts on profit or loss in the opposite direction.

This figure does not reflect the currency risk, which has been considered in the foreign currency risks analysis section only.

14A. Fair value measurement of the development property for sale

During the year, the Group decided not to carry on the development project, and is currently exploring the possibility of divesting its interest. The management has engaged an independent professional valuer, Jiangsu Guoheng Appraisal & Consultant Co., Ltd. to assess the recoverable amount of the development property. The recoverable amount was based on fair value less costs of disposal, estimated using the average of two values derived from hypothetical development approach and market comparable approach that reflects recent transaction price for similar properties. The recoverable amount was assessed to be higher than its carrying amount, and accordingly, no impairment is recognised.

The ordinary shares of no par value are fully paid, carry one vote each and have no right to fixed income. The Company is not subject to any externally imposed capital requirements.

Subsequent to the reporting year, a share consolidation exercise was made to facilitate compliance with the continuing listing requirement imposed by SGX-ST for issuers listed on the SGX Mainboard to have a minimum trading price per share of S$0.20. Under this arrangement, every five (5) existing shares were consolidated into one (1) consolidated share. The share consolidation does not involve the diminution of any liability in respect of any unpaid capital or the payment to any shareholder of any paid-up capital and has no effect on the equity of the Company and its subsidiaries.

19. SHARE CAPITAL (CONT'D)

Capital Management:

The objectives when managing capital are: to safeguard the reporting entity's ability to continue as a going concern, so that it can continue to provide returns for owners and benefits for other stakeholders, and to provide an adequate return to shareholders by pricing the sales commensurately with the level of risk. The management sets the amount of capital to meet its requirements and the risk taken. There were no changes in the approach to capital management during the reporting year. The management manages the capital structure and makes adjustments to it where necessary or possible in light of changes in conditions and the risk characteristics of the underlying assets. In order to maintain or adjust the capital structure, the management may adjust the amount of dividends paid to shareholders, return capital to shareholders, issue new shares, or sell assets to reduce debt. Adjusted capital comprises all components of equity (that is, share capital and reserves).

There are insignificant external borrowings. The debt-to-adjusted capital ratio does not provide a meaningful indicator of the risk of borrowings.

In order to maintain its listing on the Singapore Exchange, the Company has to have share capital with a free float of at least 10% of the total issued shares. The Company met the capital requirement on its initial listing and the rules limiting treasury share purchases mean it will continue to satisfy that requirement, as it did throughout the reporting year. Management receives shareholding reports from the share registrar regularly to ensure continuing compliance with the 10% free-float requirement throughout the reporting year.

20F. Statutory reserve (Cont'd)

- (f) In accordance with the Foreign Enterprise Law applicable to the subsidiaries in the People's Republic of China ("PRC"), wholly-owned subsidiaries are required to make appropriation to statutory reserve fund ("SRF"). At least 10% of the statutory profits after tax as determined in accordance with the applicable PRC accounting standards and regulations must be allocated to the SRF until the cumulative total of the SRF reaches 50% of the subsidiaries' registered capital. Subject to approval from the relevant PRC authorities, the SRF may be used to offset any accumulated losses or increase the registered capital of the subsidiaries. The SRF is not available for dividend distribution to shareholders.

All the reserves classified on the face of the statements of financial position as retained earnings represents past accumulated earnings and are distributable as cash dividends. The other reserves are not available for cash dividends unless realised.

Movement in above provision:
At beginning of the year	–	–

At end of the year	38,594	–

In 2012, the Group acquired a state-owned land from Yangzhou Municipal State-owned Land Resource Administration Bureau (“Yangzhou Land Bureau”), the People’s Republic of China, for the purpose of property development (the “Project”), where a land use rights grant contract (“Contract”) was signed with the Yangzhou Land Bureau. During the year, the Board of Directors decided not to proceed with the Project, owing to deteriorating conditions in the property market. The Board of Directors is of the view that it would not be commercially and financially advisable to proceed with the Project at this point on time. In order to minimise the negative financial impact of continuing to hold on to the land, the Group has attempted to surrender the land back to the authority but this has not been successful. Hence the above provision was made, that includes penalties, interest and forfeited deposits and estimates of future payments under performance obligations of the Contract. As the date of settlement cannot be reasonably determined, the Board of Directors has assessed it to be reasonable in consideration with the carrying amount of the development property.

24. DIVIDENDS

Final exempt (one-tier) dividends paid in respect of the previous financial year of 0.1 cent (2014: 0.1 cent) per share	406	406

In respect of the current reporting year, the Directors propose that a final dividend of 0.5 cent per share with a total of $406,000 be paid to shareholders after the annual general meeting to be held on 27 October 2015. This dividend is subject to approval by shareholders at the next annual general meeting and has not been included as a liability in these financial statements. The proposed dividend is payable in respect of all ordinary shares in issue at the end of the reporting year and including any new qualifying shares issued up to the date the dividend becomes payable. There are no income tax consequences in respect of the dividends to shareholders.

25B. Financial risk management

The main purpose for holding or issuing financial instruments is to raise and manage the finances for the entity's operating, investing and financing activities. There are exposures to the financial risks on the financial instruments such as credit risk, liquidity risk and market risk comprising interest rate, currency risk and price risk exposures. Management has certain practices for the management of financial risks. However these are not formally documented in written form. The guidelines include the following:

- (i) Minimise interest rate, currency, credit and market risks for all kinds of transactions.
- (ii) All financial risk management activities are carried out and monitored by senior management staff.
- (iii) All financial risk management activities are carried out following good market practices.

NOTES TO THE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

FOR THE FINANCIAL YEAR ENDED 30 JUNE 2015

25. FINANCIAL INSTRUMENTS: INFORMATION ON FINANCIAL RISKS (CONT'D)

25C. Fair values of financial instruments

The analysis of financial instruments that are measured subsequent to initial recognition at fair value, grouped into Levels 1 to 3 are disclosed in the relevant notes to the financial statements. These include both the significant financial instruments stated at amortised cost and at fair value in the statement of financial position. The carrying values of current financial instruments approximate their fair values due to the short-term maturity of these instruments and the disclosures of fair value are not made when the carrying amount of current financial instruments is a reasonable approximation of the fair value.

25D. Credit risk on financial assets

Financial assets that are potentially subject to concentrations of credit risk and failures by counterparties to discharge their obligations in full or in a timely manner consist principally of cash balances with banks, cash equivalents and receivables, and certain other financial assets. The maximum exposure to credit risk is: the total of the fair value of the financial assets; the maximum amount the entity would have to pay if the guarantee is called on; and the full amount of any payable commitments at the end of the reporting year. Credit risk on cash balances with banks and any other financial instruments is limited because the counterparties are entities with acceptable credit ratings. Credit risk on other financial assets is limited because the other parties are entities with acceptable credit ratings. For credit risk on receivables, an ongoing credit evaluation is performed on the financial condition of the debtors and a loss on impairment is recognised in profit or loss.

The exposure to credit risk with customers is controlled by setting limits on the exposure to individual customers and these are disseminated to the relevant persons concerned and compliance is monitored by management. There is significant concentration of credit risk on receivables, as the exposure is spread over a small number of counterparties and debtors.

Note 18 discloses the maturity of the cash and cash equivalents balances.

As part of the process of setting customer credit limits, different credit terms are used. The average credit period generally granted to trade receivable customers is about 90 days (2014: 90 days). But some customers take a longer period to settle the amounts.

25E. Liquidity risk – financial liabilities maturity analysis (Cont'd)

The above amounts disclosed in the maturity analysis are the contractual undiscounted cash flows and such undiscounted cash flows differ from the amount included in the statements of financial position. When the counterparty has a choice of when an amount is paid, the liability is included on the basis of the earliest date on which it can be required to pay. At the end of the reporting year, no claims on the financial guarantees are expected to be payable.

The liquidity risk refers to the difficulty in meeting obligations associated with financial liabilities that are settled by delivering cash or another financial asset. It is expected that all the liabilities will be settled at their contractual maturity. The average credit period taken to settle trade payables is about 30 days (2014: 30 days). The other payables are with short-term durations. The classification of the financial assets is shown in the statements of financial position as they may be available to meet liquidity needs and no further analysis is deemed necessary.

25F. Interest rate risk

The interest rate risk exposure is mainly from changes in fixed rate and floating interest rates and it mainly concerns financial liabilities. The interest from financial assets including cash balances is not significant. The following table analyses the breakdown of the significant financial instruments by type of interest rate:

	2015 $'000	2014 $'000

A hypothetical 1% (2014: 1%) strengthening in the exchange rate of the functional currency SGD against the USD with all other variables held constant would have an favourable/(adverse) effect on post-tax profit of	-	36
A hypothetical 1% (2014: 1%) strengthening in the exchange rate of the functional currency SGD against the RMB with all other variables held constant would have an adverse effect on post-tax profit of	215	200

The effect on post-tax profit for AUD is not significant.

The above table shows sensitivity to a hypothetical percentage changes in the functional currency against the relevant non-functional foreign currencies. The sensitivity rate used is the reasonably possible change in foreign exchange rates.

For similar rate weakening of the functional currency against the relevant foreign currencies above, there would be comparable impacts in the opposite direction.

In management's opinion, the above sensitivity analysis is unrepresentative of the foreign currency risks as the historical exposure does not reflect the exposure in future.

The hypothetical changes in exchange rates are not based on observable market data (unobservable inputs). The sensitivity analysis is disclosed for each non-functional currency to which the entity has significant exposure at end of the reporting year. The analysis above has been carried out without taking into consideration hedged transactions.

25H. Equity price risk

There are investments in equity shares or similar instruments. As a result, such investments are exposed to both currency risk and market price risk arising from uncertainties about future values of the investment securities. The fair values of these assets and sensitivity analysis are disclosed in Note 13.

28. FINANCIAL INFORMATION BY OPERATING SEGMENTS

28A. Information about reportable segment profit or loss, assets and liabilities

Disclosure of information about operating segments, products and services, the geographical areas, and the major customers are made as required by FRS 108 Operating Segments. This disclosure standard has no impact on the reported results of financial position of the reporting entity.

For management purposes, the reporting entity is organised into the following major strategic operating segments that offer different products and services: (i) lime manufacturing, (ii) steel trading, (iii) property development and (iv) investment holding/others. Such a structural organisation is determined by the nature of risks and returns associated with each business segment and defines the management structure as well as the internal reporting system.

The segments and the types of products and services are as follows:

- (i) Lime manufacturing – manufacturing quicklime and hydrated lime.
- (ii) Steel trading – trading of consumables required for steel product manufacturing.

ANNEXURE

GENERAL MANDATE FOR INTERESTED PERSON TRANSACTIONS

RENEWAL OF THE GENERAL MANDATE FOR INTERESTED PERSON TRANSACTIONS

At the 44th annual general meeting (“AGM”) of the Company held on 21 October 2014, shareholders of the Company (“Shareholders”) approved the renewal of, and amendments to, the General Mandate for Interested Person Transactions (the “IPT Mandate”) that will enable the Company, its subsidiaries and associated companies, or any of them that are entities at risk, to enter into certain transactions with the classes of interested persons (“Interested Persons”) as set out in the IPT Mandate.

Pursuant to Chapter 9 of the listing manual (“Listing Manual”) of the Singapore Exchange Securities Trading Limited (“SGX-ST”), a general mandate for transactions with Interested Persons is subject to annual renewal. The IPT Mandate was expressed to take effect until the conclusion of the next AGM of the Company, being the forthcoming 45th AGM.

Accordingly, the directors of the Company (the “Directors”) are proposing that the approval of the Shareholders for the renewal of the IPT Mandate be sought at the 45th AGM of the Company to be held at TKP Conference Center Raffles Place, Conference Room 2, 55 Market Street #03-01, Singapore 048941 on 27 October 2015 at 11:00 a.m.

General information relating to Chapter 9 of the Listing Manual is set out in in pages 93 to 94 of this Annual Report.

The SGX-ST assumes no responsibility for the accuracy of any of the statements made, reports contained or opinions expressed in this Annexure.

1. Rationale for the Renewal of the IPT Mandate

It is envisaged that the Company, its subsidiaries that are not listed on the SGX-ST or an approved exchange and its associated companies that are not listed on the SGX-ST or an approved exchange over which the Company and its subsidiaries, or the Company and its subsidiaries and their interested person(s), have control (collectively, the “Group”), or any company within the Group, will, in the ordinary course of their businesses, enter into transactions (“Interested Person Transactions”) with Interested Persons for mutual benefit. Such Interested Person Transactions are likely to occur with some degree of frequency, and could arise at any time. Such Interested Person Transactions would include the provision of goods and services in the ordinary course of business of the Group to Interested Persons or the obtaining of services from such Interested Persons.

Given that the Interested Person Transactions are expected to be recurrent transactions and may occur at any time, and to allow the Group to undertake such transactions in a more expeditious manner, the Directors are seeking the approval of the Shareholders for the renewal of the IPT Mandate for the purposes of Chapter 9 of the Listing Manual and for the Group to enter into the categories of Interested Person Transactions with certain classes of Interested Persons as set out in paragraphs 4 and 3 below respectively.

RENEWAL OF THE GENERAL MANDATE FOR INTERESTED PERSON TRANSACTIONS (CONT'D)

2. Benefits of the IPT Mandate

The IPT Mandate is intended to facilitate specified categories of Interested Person Transactions in the normal course of business of the Group which are transacted, from time to time, with the specified classes of Interested Persons, provided that they are carried out on an arm's length basis and on the Group's normal commercial terms and are not prejudicial to the interests of the Company and its minority Shareholders.

The IPT Mandate will enhance the ability of the companies in the Group to pursue business opportunities which are time-sensitive in nature, and will eliminate the need to convene separate general meetings from time to time to seek Shareholders' approval as and when the need to enter into a specified category of Interested Person Transactions with an Interested Person arises. This will reduce the expenses associated with convening of general meetings on an ad hoc basis, improve administrative efficiency considerably, and allow manpower resources and time to be channelled towards attaining other corporate objectives available to the Group.

3. Classes of Interested Persons

The IPT Mandate will apply to the Interested Person Transactions (as described in paragraph 4 below) with the following classes of Interested Persons, namely:

- (a) Lion Corporation Berhad ("LCB"), its subsidiaries and associated companies;
- (b) Lion Industries Corporation Berhad ("LICB"), its subsidiaries and associated companies;
- (c) Lion Diversified Holdings Berhad ("LDHB"), its subsidiaries and associated companies; and
- (d) ACB Resources Berhad ("ACB"), its subsidiaries and associated companies.

Transactions with Interested Persons that do not fall within the ambit of the IPT Mandate will be subject to the relevant provisions of Chapter 9 and/or other applicable provisions of the Listing Manual.

4. Categories of Interested Person Transactions

The transactions entered into by the Group with the Interested Persons which will be covered by the IPT Mandate are as follows:

4.1 Sale of Lime Products

The Group will supply lime products to the Interested Persons. The basis of determining the contract and/or transaction terms are defined herein below.

ANNEXURE

RENEWAL OF THE GENERAL MANDATE FOR INTERESTED PERSON TRANSACTIONS (CONT'D)

4. Categories of Interested Person Transactions (cont'd)

4.2 Sale of Consumables Required for Steel Product Manufacturing

The Group will supply consumables required for steel product manufacturing to the Interested Persons. The basis of determining the contract and/or transaction terms are defined herein below.

4.3 Provision and/or Obtaining of Services arising from Business Operations

The Group will in the ordinary course of business provide or obtain, inter alia, management, consultancy, leasing or warehousing, internal audit and information technology services relating to its business operations. The basis of determining the contract and/or transaction terms are defined herein below.

The IPT Mandate will not cover any transaction by a company in the Group with an Interested Person that is below S$100,000 in value as the threshold and aggregation requirements of Chapter 9 of the Listing Manual would not apply to such transactions.

5. Review Procedures for Interested Person Transactions

To ensure that the Interested Person Transactions are conducted on normal commercial (or, in the absence of other similar comparable transactions, fair and reasonable) terms and will not be prejudicial to the interests of the Company and its minority Shareholders, as a general rule the Group will only enter into transactions with the Interested Persons if the terms offered by or extended to the Interested Persons are respectively no less favourable or more favourable than the terms that may be obtainable from or extended to unrelated third parties.

5.1 In general, the Group has internal control procedures to ensure that the Interested Person Transactions are undertaken at arm's length, on normal commercial terms and will not be prejudicial to the interests of the Company and its minority Shareholders.

(a) Sale of Lime Products

The review procedures are as follows:

- (i) all contracts entered into or transactions with Interested Persons are to be carried out at the prevailing market prices determined by market conditions on terms which are no more favourable to the Interested Persons than the usual commercial terms extended to unrelated third parties (including, where applicable, preferential prices/rates/discounts accorded to a class of customers or for bulk purchases and long-term contracts where the giving of such preferential prices/rates/discounts are commonly practised within the applicable industry and may be extended to unrelated third parties), or otherwise in accordance with applicable industry norms. The Company will source for documented evidences of market prices and quotations, where practicable, for ascertaining the reasonableness of the pricing;
